

— For New Students in Autumn 2021 —

Required Steps for Taking Japanese Language Courses

1. Non-Native Speakers of Japanese

*"Loyola" is the official academic web portal of Sophia University, and is accessible after September 21 with a student ID.

IMPORTANT!

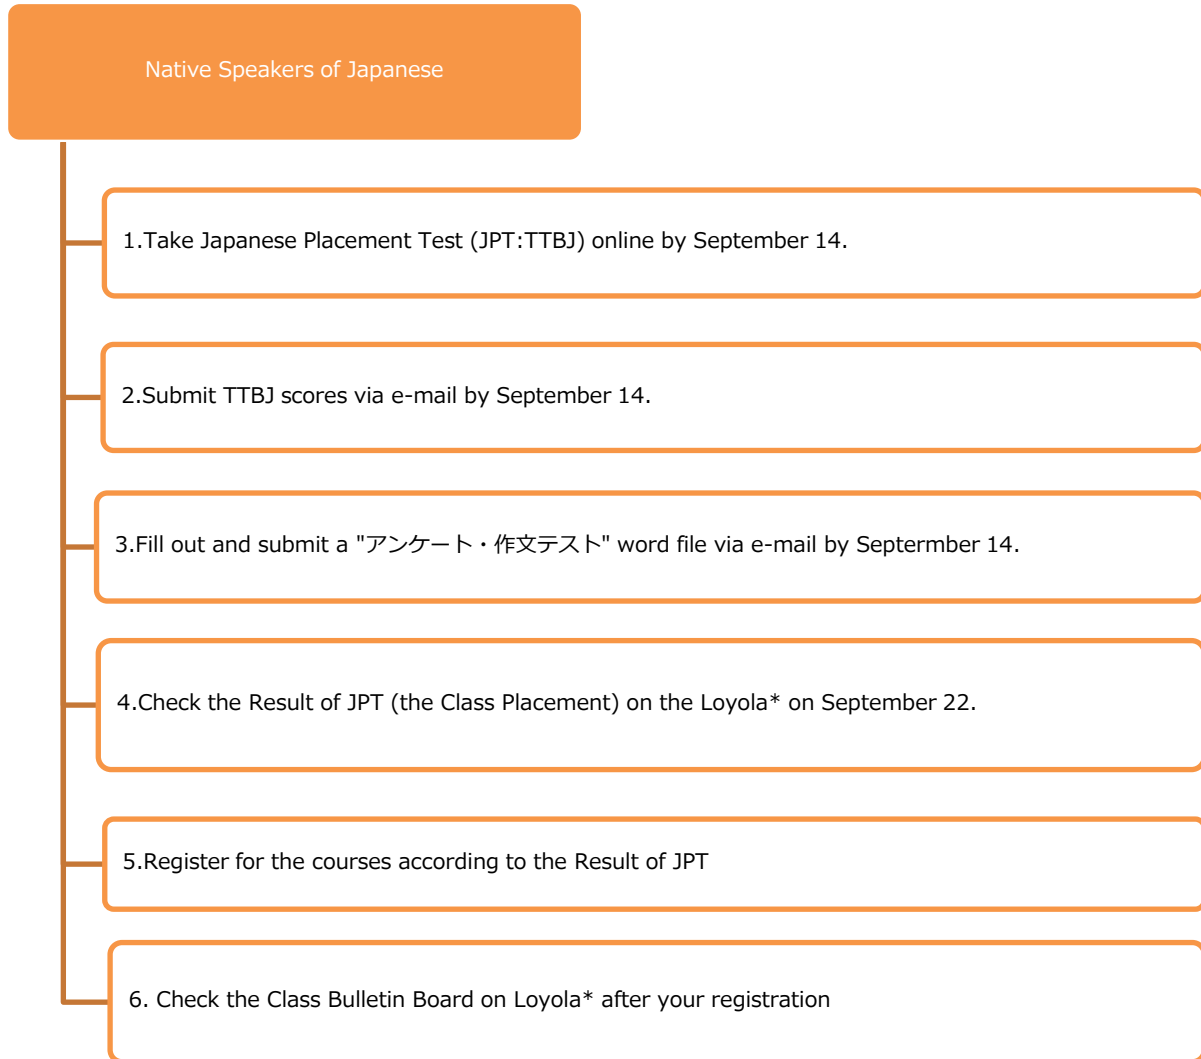

Please read each booklet below carefully before you take the Japanese Placement Test;

General information, guidelines, registration, track & course descriptions → "JAPANESE LANGUAGE PROGRAM"

How to take Japanese Placement Test (JPT:TTBJ) → "Japanese Placement Test"

The booklets are available on the CLER web site → <http://www.sophia-cler.jp/study/ja/lesson.html>

2. Native Speakers of Japanese

*"Loyola" is the official academic web portal of Sophia University, and is accessible after September 21 with a student ID.

IMPORTANT!

Please read each booklet below carefully before you take Japanese Placement Test;

General information, guidelines, registration, track & course descriptions → "JAPANESE LANGUAGE PROGRAM"

How to take Japanese Placement Test (JPT:TTBJ) → "Japanese Placement Test"

The booklets are available on the CLER web site → <http://www.sophia-cler.jp/study/ja/lesson.html>